

5 best Sacramento-area coffee shops

By KCRA Staff
December 15, 2017

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (KCRA) — Looking for a great cup of coffee from a local spot? Yelp Sacramento community manager Alex Lane compiled the five best coffee shops in the Sacramento area based on Yelp reviews and comments.

Temple Coffee

This downtown coffee oasis gets high marks from Yelpers for its coffee and ambiance.

“The coffee menu is filled with different coffees originated from Guatemala, Brazil, Panama and elsewhere. The friendly barista suggested that I should try the Nutella Latte and thank God that he did, since it turned out to be the most delicious latte that I have had in my life,” Yelper Yasaman J. said.

Pachamama Coffee Cooperative

Nestled in East Sacramento, Yelpers share glowing reviews about the shop’s organic coffee.

“Amazing smell and great tasting coffee. Great local shop. We came here looking for a pick me up and my wife and I both got coffee and loved it. I got the nitro tap and wife got pour over. Great service as well,” Yelper Yosemite B. said.

Identity Coffees

Yelpers rave about the stellar coffee, the friendly staff and the cheerful midtown vibe

“This is probably the most comfortable coffee shop I’ve been to. The employees are great, coffee is on point, plenty of places to sit and chill out,” Yelper Stefan S. said.

Hi Coffee

This Rancho Cordova coffee spot gets high marks for its service and specialty coffees.

“Amazing! What an experience, if you haven’t tried it yet. Come out, check out this great jewel in RC. Great coffee, food, and environment. Oh and the customer service was fabulous, took the time to explain everything since I’m a first timer! I will definitely be back,” Yelper Danielle G. said.

Shift Coffee

Yelpers love this Sacramento coffee shop's atmosphere, coffee, free wifi and food options.

"Definitely the bomb for great coffee and atmospheric delish. I would recommend this place any day of the week," Yelper Jsames H. said.

<http://www.kcra.com/article/5-best-sacramento-area-coffee-shops/14444062>